($76) Good deep red. Deeply pitched, smoky aromas of black cherry, mocha and spices. Big, rich, broad and sweet, with a lush middle palate already displaying plenty of chewy fruit. Sneaky acids and firm tannins give this generous wine plenty of grip. An excellent showing. 92 points

($35; a 50/50 blend of barbera and nebbiolo) Deep red with a purple tinge. Reticent aromas of violet and black cherry are complicated by nuances of coffee and black pepper. Sweet, spicy, big and broad, with flavors similar to the aromas. Finishes with peppery tannins and a hint of smoke. Here the nebbiolo is not overwhelmed by an overly oaky Barbera presence, which is all too common in many Langhe blends. 90 points

($105) Good deep red. Rather closed nose hints at red fruits, leather, game and smoky underbrush, plus a whiff of older wood; seems more than a year older than the 2005 Ravera. Then broad and sweet in the mouth but in need of a bit more verve and lift. Finishes with dusty tannins and a note of underbrush. It's hard to imagine this wine getting fresher with additional bottle aging. (Vias Imports, New York, NY) 90 points
